

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., Dec. 20, 1877.—10:30 a. m. For the Middle Atlantic States rising barometer, cooler northerly winds, and on the coast clear or partly cloudy weather, but in the interior light rains or snows.

STRANGE DEATH OF A STEAMBOAT MAN.—The Baltimore Bulletin of yesterday says:—"Francis Catlin, aged 55 years, residing on Light street, near Hughes, in this city, a 'hook-outman' on the steamer Sue, of the Baltimore and Potomac Transportation Line, died very suddenly from apoplexy on board the steamer yesterday morning off Point Lookout, St. Mary's county. The deceased had been up all night on duty, and about eight o'clock was relieved and went down to the cabin and ate his breakfast. Just as the steamer was approaching the wharf at Point Lookout, he was seen to go up on the hurricane deck to 'turn in.' Scarcely had the landing been effected, when Captain Geoghegan, who was on the hurricane deck giving orders, discovered him lying dead on the deck. An examination proved that death had resulted instantaneously from apoplexy. Mr. Catlin was well known in this city, and has been employed on various steamers running out of Baltimore. He was at one time the captain of a fine schooner called the Florida. The body of the deceased man was brought to the city on the steamer, and will be buried tomorrow."

THE CANAL.—The water was let on the canal between Cumberland and Odenton, yesterday, for the purpose of floating some of the company's boats up to Cumberland. A large number of small boats lying in the canal near Georgetown Island with coal, are being lightened in order to float them to the docks of the various canal companies to which they are assigned, for the purpose of enabling them to transfer their cargoes to schooners for shipment to eastern ports.

The Williamsport Pilot says all the boatsmen have returned home after an unsuccessful season of boating, and many of them are prepared to go through the winter. Some of them came home in a manner peculiar; in many cases they are to blame for this condition of circumstances themselves, while upon the other hand others have been unfortunate in the loss of stock, etc., by the recent flood.

ACCIDENT TO OYSTERSMEN.—The Baltimore News of yesterday says:

An accident happened on the oyster panga Harriet Howarth, Captain Elmer Howarth, in the Potomac, at St. George's bar, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, which resulted in the breaking of one man's leg and another's arm. The hands were engaged dredging and were all working around the crank, when by the breaking of some machinery, the crank became loose and flying around it, it struck John Britt, breaking his right leg below the knee, and hurling him overboard. George Round, another hand, was struck on the right arm by the handle and the bones of that limb broken. Britt was brought to Baltimore on the steamer the following morning, and received every attention from Captain Geoghegan, who removed him to the Maryland University Hospital. Round remained on board the schooner.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—Mr. G. A. Ball, of Loudoun county, Va., has instituted a suit in the Superior Court at Baltimore against Scott & Berman, lawyers, to recover $175, damages for a horse stolen from him in December last. O. H. Grant and William Richardson, both colored, were arrested in that city in February, charged with stealing three horses from Ball and F. C. Miner, both residents of Loudoun county, Va., as heretofore mentioned in the Gazette. Two of the horses were recovered in the possession of Scott & Berman, and this suit is brought to recover the value of the third. The thieves are both serving out terms in the penitentiary at Richmond.

ROBBERY.—The house of a colored man named Thomas Cowley, near the corner of Fayette and Queen streets, was entered last night and robbed of a box, containing $25 in money, and a small quantity of groceries and clothing. The box was found on the corner, near Colross, this morning, by Officers Bartlett and Smith, broken open and robbed of its contents. Later in the day a colored man named Wm. Branson was arrested by Constable Dayton, charged with the robbery, and carried before Justice Lovejoy, who committed him to jail to await the action of the Superior Court.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—A shooting affray is reported to have occurred at Piney Point, on Monday night, between Messrs. R. J. Marshall and J. K. Rann. The particulars which have come to us so far are very meagre, but it is said that both the parties went down from Washington together on the Lady of the Lake, and after landing on the shore a quarrel ensued, during which Rann struck Marshall with his fist, and the former retained by shooting him with a pistol, the ball taking effect in his hip and inflicting a dangerous wound.

DIED IN THE ROAD.—A very distressing death occurred, on the Back Lick Road, in Fairfax county, near this city, a few nights since. Mrs. Jarvis, the wife of Mr. George Jarvis, has it appears, been of unsteady mind for some time past, but not being violent, was kept at home. On the night in question, she eluded the vigilance of her friends and got outside the house. She roamed around the country during the night, and in the morning, was found dead in the road near her home. The deceased was advanced in age and has grown children.

THE MADDOX CASE.—The Baltimore Sun says:—"The two cases of Dr. T. Clay Maddox, indicted for abortion, will be called up for trial in the Criminal Court to-day. Mrs. Mary A. Lawless, the principal witness in one of the cases, who left Baltimore immediately after being before the grand jury in obedience to their summons and after the finding of the presentment, is now in Baltimore city jail, held there as a witness for the State. The trial of the case had been deferred by the State several months in consequence of her absence."

THE COAL TRADE.—The following resume of the Cumberland coal trade for the season just closing is taken from the News of that city:—"The product of the mines of the Cumberland coal region for the week ending December 15 was 29,386 tons, for the year to that date 1,510,873 tons, a decrease of 17,874 tons as compared with a corresponding period of last year. There were no shipments to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal last week; for the year there were 585,822 tons, a decrease of 51,738 tons as compared with 1876."

PERSONAL.—Rev. W. R. Graham, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church in this city, has received a call to preach in St. John's Church, Baltimore, on Sunday next, and will respond thereto. His pulpit here will be filled by Rev. Dr. Gill, of Washington. The reputation of Rev. Mr. Graham as a popular preacher is rapidly spreading.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A few days ago a young woman named Gray, living near Nelson's mill, in the lower part of Prince William, attempted to commit suicide by jumping into a well on the premises of a neighbor named Hyde. Fortunately she was observed by one of the family and rescued in time to save her from drowning, but received very serious injuries on her head and body from her fall. Matrimonial disappointment is alleged as the cause of the act.

There will be a grand masquerade ball, at Sarepta Hall, on New Year's Eve.

INFRACTION OF REVENUE LAWS.—G. W. Smith, of Haymarket, John Cross, of Gaithersville, B. W. Head, of Vienna, and G. W. Lash, of this city, were brought before U. S. Commissioner Fowler, this morning, charged with infraction of the Revenue laws. The parties were all bailed for their appearance, at the January term of the U. S. Court.

MISSING.—Mr. Charles Waters, a well known driver of Loudon, Va., who traded to this city and Washington, has been missing for about three weeks, and as he had a large sum of money on his person when last seen, at the American Hotel, in Washington, his friends fear that he has been foully dealt with.

FIRE.—There was a slight alarm of fire about half past five o'clock yesterday evening, caused by the burning out of a chimney at the house of Mr. Wm. Francis, on Fairfax street, near the W. & O. depot. The flames communicated to the roof, but were extinguished by the neighbors without calling out the fire department.

HORSE SALE.—Mr. James Chatham, the well known livery stable keeper of this city, has disposed of his pair of fine gray horses to President Hayes. The President's coachman was in this city and tried the horses, with which he expressed himself much pleased.
